Course Overview

COURSE OUTLINE

This qualification reflects the role of community services workers involved in the delivery, management, and coordination of person-centred services to individuals, groups, and communities.

At this level, workers have specialised skills in community services and work autonomously within their scope of practice under broad directions from senior management.

Workers support people to make change in their lives to improve personal and social wellbeing and may also have responsibility for the supervision of other workers and volunteers. They may also undertake case management and program coordination.

To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed at least 200 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of units of competency.

The skills in this qualification must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State or Territory legislation, Australian standards, and industry codes of practice.

No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.

UNITS AND VOCATIONAL PLACEMENT

To obtain a successful completion a total of 20 units needs to be completed.

- Twelve (12) core units and Eight (8) elective units.

In addition to the completion of the units a minimum of 100 hours vocational placement is required to be completed within the workplace. If you are already employed and working in the role, evidence of employment along with a supervisor sign off will support the assessment process.

The average completion for this qualification is 12 - 24 months.

ARE THERE ANY ENTRY REQUIREMENTS?

There are no formal entry requirements applicable to this qualification.

It is recommended that students hold a minimum of Certificate III level qualification and have experience within the community services industry.

Course Delivery

WELLBEING AND INCLUSION

At Aspire to Succeed, we are committed to fostering a culturally safe and inclusive workplace where all staff, students, and stakeholders feel respected, valued, and supported.

We acknowledge and celebrate the diverse cultural backgrounds of our community, including First Nations peoples, and we actively work to eliminate barriers to participation and success.

We strive to create an environment where:

- Cultural identity is recognised and respected, and individuals feel safe to express who they are without fear of discrimination or judgment.
- Cultural safety is embedded into our policies, practices, and daily operations through continuous learning, reflection, and improvement.
- Staff are trained to understand, respect, and respond to cultural differences, ensuring equitable access to education and employment opportunities.
- Culturally respectful communication and practices are the norm, not the exception.
- Feedback is welcomed and valued, and we listen and respond with empathy and accountability to concerns about cultural safety.

We believe that cultural safety is essential to a fair, respectful, and high-quality training environment, and we are committed to upholding this standard in everything we do.

LENGTH OF THE COURSE

Your enrolment is for a 24-month period. Additional time is to be discussed with your trainer / director.

ATTENDANCE

Due to the intensive nature of this course, attendance at all zoom sessions is recommended. Every class will focus on the application assessment of the unit. If a class is missed, students will be responsible for arranging to cover what was missed in their own time.

WORK PLACEMENTS

Placements can be completed at a wide range of Community Service organisations.

You will be required to work a minimum of 100 vocational placement hours which is approximately 13 x eight-hour shifts or the equivalent.

Vocational placement is unpaid.

If you are already working in the sector, you can choose to complete your placement at your existing workplace.

If not, or if you would prefer to broaden your experience, we can assist you to select and secure an appropriate placement. We have regular providers that we work with for student's placement. Should you not be able to attend one of those sites, we will request your assistance to locate placement that suits your individual needs.

When on placement you will be required to:

- Meet the employment times of the employer - this include applicable start times of the organisation - this is the same time as all other workers. If you are not able to commence at this time, you will not be able to meet the requirements of this course.
- Represent Aspire to Succeed in a professional manner at all times.
- Ensure you are punctual and presented for the role.
- Commit to complete the placement.

Your placement must be completed within six months of the conclusion of your classes and last submitted assessment work.

We are only able to support student's interstate that have access to a workplace and already employed in the industry.
