Certificate IV in Ageing Support

Qualification Summary

Ageing Support

Aged care is one of Australia's fastest growing industries and offers exciting career opportunities. Aged care workers care for elderly people, often with very complex care needs

You will need to provide friendly, compassionate support to the elderly by helping with daily living, personal care and hygiene. Typical duties can include showering, dressing and eating. You may also arrange and supervise activities designed to enhance physical, social and emotional wellbeing.

Our course is designed to provide learners with a range knowledge and skills application, ensuring you are ready and able to complete the tasks at the required level in the workplace.

Who should Enrol?

This course is suitable for those interested or already working in a role within the aged care industry. This course is ideal for anyone who does not yet have a formal tertiary qualification or someone who holds a Certificate III within the Community Services Industry.

Although this is a mainstream course designed for aged care workers, others are very welcome to apply.

Career Opportunities

This course will equip you for roles such as:

- ✓ Community Program Coordinator
- ✓ Residential Care Worker
- ✓ Support Worker (Community Services)
- ✓ Care supervisor
- ✓ Accommodation Support Worker
- ✓ Personal care worker
- ✓ Personal care giver
- ✓ Assistant Hostel Supervisor
- ✓ Personal care assistant
- ✓ Residential care officer
- ✓ Day Activity Worker
- ✓ Care Team Leader

Qualification

This course is a Nationally Recognised Qualification.

AQF Level

This is an AQF Level 4 course. AQF Criteria for this course is below.

Skills - Graduates at this level will have a broad range of cognitive, technical and communication skills to select and apply a range of methods, tools, materials and information to:

- ✓ complete routine and non-routine activities
- ✓ provide and transmit solutions to a variety of predictable and sometimes unpredictable problems

Application of knowledge and skills - Graduates at this level will apply knowledge and skills to demonstrate autonomy, judgement and limited responsibility in known or changing contexts and within established parameters.

Course Overview

Course Outline

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments.

Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.

Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

Course Outline

To obtain a successful completion a total of 18 units need to be completed.

- ✓ Fifteen (15) core units and three (3) elective units.

In addition to the completion of the units a minimum of 120 hours vocational placement is required to be completed within the workplace. If you are already employed and working in the role, evidence of employment along with a supervisor sign off will support the assessment process.

The average completion for this qualification is 12 - 18 months.

Are there any entry requirements?

There are no formal entry requirements applicable to this qualification.

Due to the level of this course, Aspire to Succeed recommends learners hold Certificate III in Aged Care/Disability or Certificate III in Individual Support or have the required industry experience in the sector prior to enrolling into the course.

Employment status does not matter, nor is there a minimum education requirement, but students must meet the standard entry requirements for their chosen qualification. It is preferred that a learner enrolling into a Certificate IV level have experience within the sector
